

We had a very quiet morning. Again, they chose to initiate play with play dough.

Playdough

They spent all morning exploring the play dough with confidence. They rolled and used cutters to cut out shapes. Sw rolled the playdough flat with a rolling pin. Then used a star cutter to cut out a star shape.

They shared the play dough equipment, talked to each other, building up their relationships.

Learning skills; fine motor, sharing, language and creative skills