

Mothers Love child care Harmony day celebration

At Mother’s Love children, educators and parents came together to celebrate the special occasion. Children and education wore their traditional clothes. Children wore an orange sash which represents the colour of harmony and respect.

Children performed by dancing and singing songs from different part of the world. E.g. China, Ghana, Indian, and Australia.

Parents and their children who came to support to celebrate the occasion.

